Out of the Night

She saw those eyes—they followed her every move—to stay longer meant her discovery by the count—to go out into the night meant the meeting with those eyes. What could she do? How was she to save herself? Could she possibly make a get-away without being caught by those waiting, grasping arms out in the night? Can she take a chance and hide THE BROKEN COIN in the count's apartment? What shall she do?

Order of Publication

State of Missouri, } ss:
County of Wright, }
In the Circuit Court, September term, 1916.
George W. Freeman, Plaintiff, vs.
A. J. Dalley, Andrew J. Dalley, George S. Van Every, A. H. Hoge, Trustee, Pollox, Spitz, and Landrum, Beneficiaries, Simon Simpson, and Frank H. Rollins, Defendants.

At this day comes the plaintiff herein, George W. Freeman, and files his petition and affidavit, alleging among other things, that defendants, A. J. Dalley, Andrew J. Dalley, George S. Van Every, A. H. Hoge, Trustee, Pollox, Spitz, and Landrum, Beneficiaries, Simon Simpson and Frank H. Rollins, are non residents of the State of Missouri:

Whereupon it is ordered by the clerk in vacation, that said defendants be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against them in this court, the object and general nature of which is to hear the evidence and by its order, judgment and decree to define the title, estate and interests of the parties to this action, both plaintiff and defendants, of, in and to the south half of the northwest quarter of section fourteen (14), in township twenty-eight (28), range sixteen (16), in Wright county, Missouri, and to finally determine the rights, claims, interests, liens and demands whatsoever of the several parties to the action, or either of them, and to award full and complete relief, whether legal or equitable, and quiet the title to the said above described real estate, in pursuance to Section 2535 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Missouri, and to declare that the defendants—the grantor, A. J. Dalley, and the patentee of said lands, Andrew J. Dalley, were, at the date of making conveyance of said lands, to wit, on the 22d day of October, 1881, one and the same party, and that the defendant, George S. Van Every, was single, sole and unmarried on the 25th day of August, 1884, and at the date of his conveyance of said lands, and that the notes made by the defendant, Simon Simpson, dated the 21st day of February, 1887, to the defendant, A. H. Hoge, trustee for the defendants, Pollox, Spitz, and Landrum, beneficiaries, and the deed of trust securing the same, recorded in Mortgage Book "D," at page 51, of the land records of the County of Wright and State of Missouri, are barred by the statute of limitations, and that the same be canceled and for naught held, and that the defendants, Pollox, Spitz, and Landrum, beneficiaries, their heirs and assigns, be forever barred from claiming any interest, title or estate in said lands by reason of said deed of trust, and that unless the said A. J. Dalley, Andrew J. Dalley, George S. Van Every, A. H. Hoge, trustee, Pollox, Spitz, and Landrum, beneficiaries, Simon Simpson, and Frank H. Rollins be and appear at this court at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the court house in the city of Hartsville, in said county, on the 4th day of September, 1916, next, and on or before the third day of said term, if the term shall so long continue—and, if not, then on or before the last day of said term—answer or plead to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published, according to law, in the Mansfield Mirror, a weekly newspaper printed and published in the County of Wright and State of Missouri.

A true copy from the record. Witness my hand and the seal of the Circuit Court of Wright County, this 14th day of June, 1916. JOHN N. PRYOR, JR., (Seal) Circuit Clerk.
